A Culinary Journey To Northern India

The historic lands of northern India offer a travel experience like no other. Packed with famous monuments and palaces, serene temples, ancient desert routes lined with historic forts and colourful bulging cities full of a rich and vibrant culture, it is a heady and wonderful experience.

Wandering Wok Tours specialises in small group tours and on this tour we will be in the capable hands of Kipling Travel, specialists in Indian travel. This tour indulges food lovers with many opportunities to taste the delights of both Awadhi and Mughlai cuisines in many different environments.

This Wandering Wok Tours 14 day /13 night culinary journey to Northern India takes you to six wonderful cities to explore the sounds, sites and flavours of this region. The tour starts in Mumbai and then heads up north to the colourful states of Rajasthan and Uttar Pradesh.

What Does The Tour Include?

- ✓ Mumbai - 2 nights
 The gateway to India's rich heritage infused, infused with all the modern comforts. Explore the city and experience dinner at one of its most famous restaurants.
- ✓ Udaipur - 2 nights
 Udaipur is one of India's most magical cities, a bastion of Rajasthani tradition, with its creamy-white palaces beside a shimmering lake, rambling old havelis (traditional mansions) and romantic luxury hotels that pull in honeymooners and more than a few wedding parties.
- ✓ Jaipur - 2 nights
 The third point of the Golden Triangle, which also includes Delhi and Agra, Jaipur is the colourful capital of Rajasthan. Venture to a village out of town and savour some local cuisine freshly cooked for you. See if you can find The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel!
